Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

PETITION FOR REVIVAL UNDER 37 CFR 1.316(c) AND SECTION 712 OF THE MPEP

Sir:

Applicant hereby petitions the Commissioner for revival of application USSN 533,245. The application was unintentionally abandoned by applicants alleged failure to pay the Issue Fee within the statutory period of three months from the mailing date of December 21, 1990. Applicant respectfully requests that the Commissioner accept the payment of the Issue Fee.

37 CFR 1.316(c) allows the Commissioner to accept late payment of an Issue Fee if the delay in payment was unintentional, the petition is filed within one year of abandonment of the application and the petition is accompanied by: (1) the issue fee, (2) the fee for unintentionally delayed payment and (3) a statement that such delay was unintentional.

Abandonment was Unintentional

The unintentional failure to pay the Issue Fee was due to clerical oversight.
As a part of the standard operating procedure of applicant's attorney, a docketing clerk fills out the allowance papers and fills in the proper deposit account number for debiting in lieu of enclosing a check for the Issue Fee. In this instance, accidental oversight caused the two blanks (2b and 6b) to be inadvertently left blank. As evidence of the unintentional nature of this omission, applicant wishes to point out to the Commissioner that applicant did attempt to pay the Issue Fee by mailing all of the paperwork on March 21, 1991.

LA10182 06/18/91 07533245 05-1710 010 141 1,050.00CH

LA10183 06/18/91 07533245 05-1710 010 142 1,050.00CH

Applicant assures the Commissioner that it was unintentional that the Account Number 05-1710 was not put in the appropriate box. As is plain from the face of the documents, applicant intended to pay the Issue Fee on time and through clerical oversight was unable to do so. Applicant respectfully petitions the Commissioner to accept the late payment of the Issue Fee and further authorizes the United States Patent and Trademark Office to charge such fee to Deposit Account Number 05-1710.

Applicant also expressly authorizes the United States Patent and Trademark Office to charge the appropriate fee for unintentionally delayed payment to Deposit Account No. 05-1710.

Notification of the revival of this application is respectfully requested.

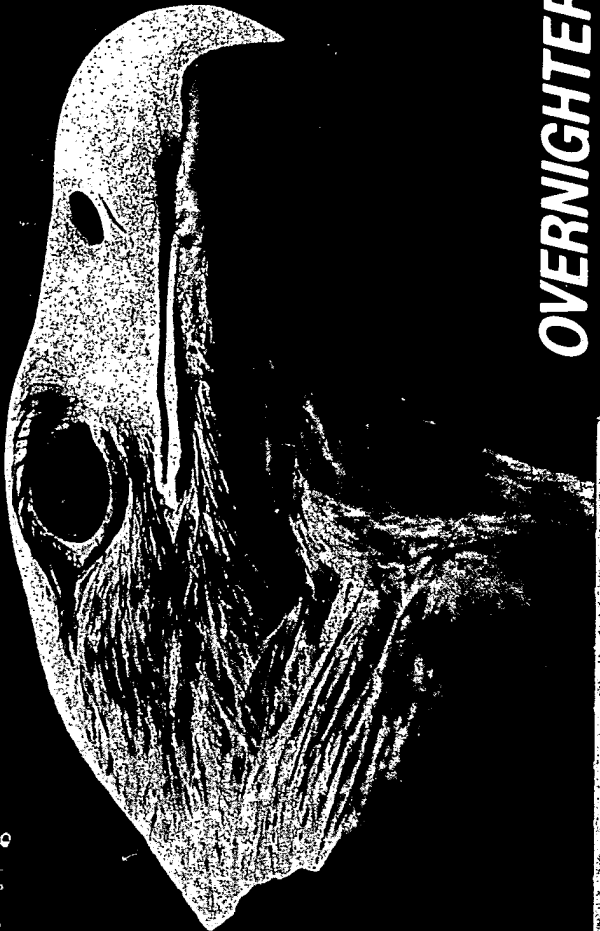

Respectfully submitted,
